

In 2021, there is a tax credit that you may qualify for if you were unable to perform self-employment work due to COVID-19. Please see below for the circumstances you might qualify.

If one day could fall under two different categories, make sure to put the date in both sections.

Ex) On 4/1/2022, You were out sick, but your kids were also quarantined under advisement of a doctor. You should list this date under both sections A and B.

A) If you were unable to perform self-employment work because you were subject to a government quarantine or isolation order related to COVID-19, you were advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19, or you were experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and seeking a medical diagnosis, please list out the days that you were unable to work:

---

---

B) If you were unable to perform self-employment work because you were caring for an individual that was subject to a government quarantine or isolation order related to COVID-19, or that had been advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19, please list out the days that you were unable to work:

---

---

C) If you were unable to perform self-employment work because you were caring for a son or daughter because the school or place of child care has been closed, or because the child care provider is unavailable due to COVID-19 precautions and no other person was providing care for the child at the same time, please list out the days that you were unable to work:

---

---

D) If you were unable to perform self-employment work because you were seeking or awaiting the results of diagnostic test or medical diagnosis of COVID-19, you were exposed and unable to work pending the results of a test or diagnosis, you were obtaining immunization related to COVID-19, or you were recovering from any condition related to such immunization, please list out the days that you were unable to work: _____

---

---

E) If you were unable to perform self-employment work because you were accompanying an individual to obtain immunization related to COVID -19 or because you were caring for an individual who was recovering from any injury, disability, illness or condition related to the immunization, please list out the days that you were unable to work: _____

---

---